Waiver of Liability

1. By joining Grand Rapids Jeep Club, you agree and understand that participating in events involving the driving of motorized vehicles off road is a dangerous activity which may result in injury to your person or property, and agree and intend to release, indemnify, and hold harmless Grand Rapids Jeep Club from any liability resulting from any injuries you may sustain to your person or property because of your participation in, or observing of, activities taking place during the event. You understand that your membership payment means that you agree not to sue any or all Grand Rapids Jeep Club relating to all injuries to your person or property during the event.
2. Any member or non-member of Grand Rapids Jeep Club who participates in any event affiliated with Grand Rapids Jeep Club does so at his/her own risk. He/she does not hold Grand Rapids Jeep Club, its officers, and/or the trail guide liable for any injury, loss, damage, or death that may occur due to such participation
3. It is understood that club events having to do with operation of one or more vehicles pose potential harm to persons and property, and it is understood that members and non-members participate in all events at their own risk.
4. Our By-laws are in integral part of the Grand Rapids Jeep Club. Every member will receive a copy.
